How do I qualify for an operator's license?

To qualify for an operator's license, you must

- be at least 18 years old,
- meet criminal record requirements, and
- have completed a responsible beverage server course. Call your local Vocational, Technical and Adult Education (VTAE) School, or see "Training" on the Department of Revenue web site.

The last requirement can be waived if it is a renewal application or if you held an alcohol beverage license, including an operator's license, within the past two years. The municipality may issue you a provisional operator's license if you are enrolled in a responsible beverage server course when you apply. An operator's license is only good in the municipality that issues it. For instance, if you are issued an operator's license in the City of Marinette, you may not use it in a rural community, like the Town of Peshtigo.

What are responsible beverage server training courses?

These courses are required to hold alcohol beverage licenses, with some exceptions. They cover alcohol beverage laws, signs of intoxication, safe serving of alcohol beverages, etc. These courses are most often offered by local technical colleges. For further information, contact your local Vocational, Technical and Adult Education (VTAE) School.

Not all responsible beverage server courses are taught by technical colleges. Other courses (see "Training" on the Department of Revenue web site) may be substituted for those taught at VTAE schools, as long as they have been approved by the Department of Revenue or the educational approval board. Make sure of this approval before enrolling in a responsible server course not offered at a VTAE school.

What exceptions are there to the server training course requirement?

The exceptions to this requirement are

- if you are renewing a Wisconsin retail or an operator's license,
- if you were the agent of a corporation that held a Wisconsin retail license within the past two years,
- if you held a Wisconsin retail or operator's license within the past two years, or
- if you completed a Wisconsin approved server training course within the past two years.

Can I get a liquor license if I have a criminal record?

That will largely be up to the municipality to determine. A criminal record is not an automatic bar to getting a license. The municipality must determine whether the violation is something related to the business of selling alcohol beverages. Violations such as selling liquor without a license, tax evasion, etc., are closely related to this business and might well be a bar to licensing. A record of auto theft may not. The municipality will weigh the nature of the violation, the time that has elapsed since the violation, the person's overall record in the community, etc., in making that determination.
